The Government respectfully writes with the consent of the defendant to request an adjournment of the first status conference, which is currently set for Wednesday, September 26, 2007, until Friday, October 5, 2007 at 4 p.m. This additional time will enable the parties to continue discussions about a possible disposition and entry of a guilty plea at the first conference.

If the Court grants this request, the Government further requests that the Court exclude time from Speedy Trial Act calculation until the date of the next conference to allow the parties to continue discussions a possible pretrial disposition of this matter.
